Reference: X-ACC-500-CBL-LOCK
EAN13: 859005002782

The X-ACC-500-CBL-LOCK is a Brand New product that was created in collaboration with smallHD specifically for the 500 Series Monitors. The light weight cable lock weighs in at just 1.4 ounces and is extremely easy to use.

This lock was specifically designed to protect the SDI mounts on your monitor. To use, mount your *SDI cables to the monitor then slide the lock into place and tighten the thumb knob. The 500 Series Cable lock was also designed to lock in your *smallHD HDMI Cable. Just mount the cable lock then line up your HDMI male end to the smallHD female end and press your cable firmly into place. The HDMI portion can also be used with smaller dimension cables as an HDMI passthrough.

Stop waisting your money on expensive repairs and keep your investment safe.

*This lock works best with smallHD brand HDMI Cables with a head size approx. 0.785in x 0.145in.

*Works with most SDI cables

*Cables not included
