

STUDIO 2kW TUNGSTEN FRESNEL

Optimised combination of steel, die cast and aluminium for both sturdiness and lightweight
High-quality epoxy powder coating protects against corrosion

Scratch resistant black non-reflective housing

Specifically designed optics with large size lens and reflector for high-quality light output

Side mounted pole operated focus mechanism easily repositioned to manual use

Reference: 27262

EAN13: -

The STUDIO range has been developed specifically for Film and TV applications where there is a need for high-quality and balanced output producing flat and very even field. The unique features of the range are designed to meet the most demanding lighting requirements of cinematographers, directors of photography, gaffers, and lighting directors.

In the market for several years now, the QUARTZCOLOR STUDIO range has become a standard and a reference within the industry.

Caractéristiques :